

New Managing Director in DEA Norge

From March 1 Jon Sandnes is appointed Managing Director of DEA Norge. He comes from the position as Head of Area Management in the company.

Sandnes is following Hans-Hermann Andreae, who has taken on new responsibilities at DEA's headquarters in Hamburg.

"DEA has exciting plans for its activities in Norway. The company has motivated and experienced employees, exiting projects and owners with an intention to merge DEA with Wintershall. All this makes DEA a very interesting company to be a part of", says Sandnes.

Jon Sandnes has had various management positions in DEA since 2002, and has in addition experience from Hydro and Saga Petroleum. He has a master degree in Chemical Engineering / Industrial Economics and Technology Management from NTNU, in addition to a studies in finance and international management from BI Norwegian Business School.

